

Opening: Lead Teacher Position

Perinton Nursery School is excited to be growing our class offerings and teacher team for the 2023-2024 school year! Perinton Nursery School is a community-oriented, Reggio Emilia inspired cooperative preschool that offers our students the opportunities to learn and discover through play.

Roles and responsibilities:

- Lead teacher for the afternoon 4/5 program for the 2023–2024 school year
- Implement curriculum alongside fellow lead teacher, Heather Lincourt. Guide, observe, and record student progress throughout the year.
- Document and photograph student activities regularly. We maintain frequent communication with parents about classroom activities so they may continue the learning process at home. As a cooperative preschool, our parent and teacher relationships are ongoing
- Create learning opportunities within the classroom based on the Reggio Emilia philosophy. Perinton Nursery School believes in student led learning curriculum should take into account students ongoing interests and explore the children’s natural inquisitiveness.
- Develop and maintain relationships with the parents to encourage that the learning process continues at home. Perform parent teacher conferences during the school year, provide ongoing guidance to parents.
- Document and track student progress through the year.
- Teacher will work with Perinton Nursery School board for all administrative school needs

Qualifications:

- Bachelor’s degree in early childhood or elementary education preferred
- Early childhood classroom teaching experience
- Understanding of the Reggio Emilia philosophy and how to implement the philosophy within the classroom
